Parents As Teachers

St. Louis Chapter NAWIC partners with National Center for Parents as Teachers in BLOCK FEST™

*Family Play Date set for October 3, 2009
St. Charles Convention Center
10 AM – 4 PM*

A highlight of the Family Play Date, a free event open to all families in the St. Louis area, is "BLOCK FEST", an interactive exhibit developed by the University of Idaho Parents as Teachers program to build math and science skills in young children. Using hands-on activities the children and their parents are encouraged to learn side by side..

The St. Louis Chapter NAWIC will have 2 areas to introduce construction to the children and their parents. Contact Donna Martin at stlmartin@sbcglobal.net or 314-346-4039 to volunteer to help or for additional information.

Based in St. Louis, the National Center for Parents as Teachers, is the resource base and backbone of the largest parent education program in the nation. The nonprofit National Center oversees over 3,000 Parents as Teachers Programs nationwide as well as in Australia, Belize, Canada, China, Germany, Mexico, New Zealand, and the United Kingdom. For more information about Parents as Teachers, visit www.parentsasteachers.org.
